Description

Shaughnessy is the city's geographic heart, a community that is exceptionally famous for its heritage and culture. Central in its region with easy access to well known amenities like shopping on Broadway, 2 hospitals, VanDusen Botanical Gardens, and one of the top public/private academic institutions in Vancouver. The location is as spectacular as this custom built home. The extravagant services in this community are emulated into the high quality details that is seen throughout this house. From the custom wall hand paintings to hand selecting high end appliances, top security steel door, and stone countertops. Each of the 5 rooms has their own private ensuite. Entertain with a media/hot tub/sauna room and a wet bar. A must see!
